

Gloria Mills

Biography

Gloria is a member of UNISON's Senior Management Group. She is National Secretary for Equalities responsible for strategic management, policies, programmes and membership participation functions. Gloria is a past President of the TUC and is a member of the General Council, Executive and Chair of the Race Relations Committee. Gloria is Chair the EPSU and Vice-President of the ETUC Women's Committee.

She is a member of the Editorial Advisory Board of Equal Opportunities Review; the Employment Appeal Tribunal and has written a range of articles and publications on equality, employment and institutional racism. Gloria is a Commissioner on Labour's Older Women's Commission and a former CRE Commissioner.

In 2005 she was awarded the CBE for service to equal opportunities and in 1999 received the MBE for services to the trade union movement. In 2006 received an Honorary Doctorate in Law from Staffordshire University.