

Charlotte Gascoigne

Biography

Charlotte Gascoigne is a researcher, writer and consultant in flexible working. She recently completed a PhD on the development of part-time working arrangements for managers and professionals. After a management career in publishing, she has worked as a consultant in flexible working for the past 10 years, with clients including Centrica, Transport for London, BP, the Medical Women's Federation, AXA PPP, KPMG, and the National Physical Laboratory.